MOTION TO ACCEPT FORM I-589 AS FILED ON THE “LODGED” DATE

COMES NOW, Respondent, and any derivative family members associated with him/her, and requests that the Court accept Respondent’s I-589 asylum application as filed on the date it was lodged with the Court in order to meet his/her one-year filing deadline for asylum. In support of this motion, Respondent states the following:

1. Respondent and any derivative family members consolidated with his/her case are currently appearing pro se before this Court.
2. Respondent is seeking asylum in the United States.
3. Respondent’s next hearing date before this Court will not occur until after Respondent’s one-year filing deadline for asylum. Respondent cannot wait to file his/her asylum application until his/her next hearing date.
4. In order to demonstrate his/her attempt to meet the one-year deadline, Respondent has lodged his/her I-589 asylum application with the Court prior to the one-year deadline. See 8 C.F.R. § 1208.4(a)(2), (b) (explaining that an asylum application must be received by the Immigration Court having jurisdiction over the respondent's proceedings prior to the respondent's one-year filing deadline, but not specifying the manner in which it must be received).

5. Since Respondent understands that the Court will not accept a Form I-589 at the Court window other than for purposes of lodging the application, Respondent therefore requests that the Court accept his/her I-589 as filed as of the lodged date in order to meet his/her one-year filing deadline. Since the Court will not accept an I-589 at the Court window, Respondent will provide the Court with his/her original, lodged-stamped I-589 asylum application at Respondent's next hearing.
6. Granting this motion will ensure Respondent's ability to seek asylum in the United States and obtain protection from persecution in his/her country of citizenship. See Kadia v. Gonzales, 501 F.3d 817, 821 (7th Cir. 2007) (noting the need for adjudicators to "exercise care commensurate with the stakes in an asylum case").

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court accept his/her I-589 asylum application as filed as of the date it was lodged with the Court.

Respectfully submitted,
