Key for Column 3: “1 YD Issues Addressed”

Numerical Code	Information represented by code
1	A filing deadline exception for changed circumstances in the country of origin was at issue in the case.
2	A filing deadline exception for the applicant’s changed personal circumstances was at issue in the case.
3	A filing deadline exception for extraordinary circumstances was at issue in the case.
4	Whether the applicant applied within a reasonable period after a recognized or proffered exception was at issue in the case.
5	Whether the applicant established by clear and convincing evidence that she applied within one year of arrival was at issue in the case.
6	The BIA found that the filing deadline barred asylum eligibility, but provided no substantive discussion on this issue.
7	The case involved an asylum seeker who was lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and/or HIV positive.
8	The decision included a direct or indirect statement that an applicant’s proffered exception did not qualify as an exception because it was not listed in the regulations.
