ABOUT THE NIJC HUMAN RIGHTS AWARDS

The National Immigrant Justice Center's (NIJC) Human Rights Awards honors human rights champions and business, civic, and community leaders. The event's Silver Anniversary marks a special opportunity for sponsors to join us in celebrating more than 25 years of impact. This inspirational event is a staple in the legal community and provides critical funding for NIJC's work, together with our pro bono partners, providing legal services to countless people and advancing a more humane immigration system.

2024 AWARDEES

Keynote & Jeanne M. and Joseph P. Sullivan Award: EDWIDGE DANTICAT

Edwidge Danticat is the author of several award-winning books and essay collections, including her memoir, Brother, I'm Dying, a 2007 finalist for the National Book Award and a 2008 winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for autobiography. She is a 2009 MacArthur Fellow, 2018 Ford Foundation Art of Change Fellow, 2018 Neustadt Prize winner, 2019 Saint Louis Literary Award winner, 2020 United States Artist Fellow, 2020 Vilceck Prize winner, and 2023 PEN/Malamud Award winner. She is a Member of the New York Writer's Hall of Fame and The American Academy of Arts and Letters. She currently teaches at Columbia University.

Additional awardees to be announced soon!

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Sponsors are critical to the success of the NIJC Human Rights Awards. As a sponsor you will:

- Protect human rights and access to life-changing legal counsel for immigrants and refugees
- Demonstrate your commitment to the work of pro bono volunteers and to the community
- Sustain pro bono opportunities offering valuable experience for volunteer lawyers
- Obtain great visibility for your organization before a wide audience

To confirm sponsorship, visit immigrantjustice.org/sponsor or email Mayon Yen, myen@heartlandalliance.org.
